

WELCOME TO 2006 NATIONAL LANDCARE AWARDS

Landcare Australia, I welcome you to the ninth National Landcare Awards celebrate the amazing achievements of our 75 finalists across from every state and territory and for the first time, internationally.

The work of these dedicated landcarers goes unnoticed, and most do not seek fame and recognition for their work. These Awards are to uncover and tell the great stories of landcare. Tonight we recognise teachers, farmers, local councils, advocates, sponsors and landcare who are dedicated to protecting our precious natural heritage, and play a big part of their life.

"Close Up" look at the best landcare has to offer in this country and celebrate your achievements and pay tribute to each and every one of you.
Tonight, you deserve it.
